

LEGENDARY HALIBUT & TROUT

This journey combines two of Alaska's finest fishing lodges, Tutka Bay Lodge and Crystal Creek Lodge. You're positioned not only for prime fishing opportunities but for Alaskan adventures such as wildlife spotting, hiking, kayaking, and bear viewing. When you're ready for relaxation, there's cooking classes, yoga, massage, and simply enjoying the views with a glass of wine in hand!

ACCOMMODATION

Tutka Bay Lodge

Kachemak Bay, AK

Esteemed as one of National Geographic's Unique Lodges of the World, this 4-star property is situated on Tutka Bay and nestled at the head of the rugged seven-mile fjord in Kachemak Bay. About 25 minutes by boat from Homer, the lodge sits on eleven acres surrounded by tide pools, natural estuaries, and twenty acres of old growth Sitka spruce, which provides a unique trail system right from the large oceanside deck. The property has a distinctly Alaskan maritime feel with the quiet cove offering a serene space in which to notice the resident marine life.

About This Property

This Alaskan lodge offers a variety of unique cabins, varying in size and bed type.

Crystal Creek Lodge

King Salmon, AK

Located five miles east of King Salmon, this fishing lodge is considered one of the finest in Alaska. Of seven guest rooms, five are within the main lodge – a beautiful 7,500 sq. ft building made of massive scribed logs and river rock overlooking the Naknek River. Two private cabins are located 75 feet from the main lodge. Amenities include a mud room with lockers and wader dryers, laundry service, a bar and game room, and two separate relaxation/reading areas. There is a massage therapy room and a screened, outdoor hot tub.
