Moraine Lake Lodge

Moraine Lake, AB

Located on Moraine Lake, close to the town of Lake Louise, Moraine Lake Lodge sits on the site of a teahouse established in 1912. In 1991, the owners commissioned famous Canadian architect Arthur Erickson to design a new lodge and cabins that would blend with the environment. The resulting main lodge is built of hand-hewn timber and comprises the dining room, library, gift shop, café, outdoor patio, 8 guestrooms and 1 suite. The surrounding cabins have vaulted open beam ceilings, and panoramic views of Moraine Lake. The rooms do not have TVs or phones.
