T'á ish Adventures Camp

Taku River, BC

You will be living in traditional styled luxury with everything from electricity to laundry service in the middle of a vast untamed wilderness area. The main lodge consists of a kitchen and dining room where our chefs provide excellent cuisine three times a day. The remote location and plentiful number of spawning salmon and berries make this an ideal spot for bears looking to fatten up before winter. The area attracts roughly fifty bears (and counting!) each summer, with your expert guide knowing most of them by name.

About This Property

These rustic rooms are unique in their size and dimensions, offering you a remote and Authentic Canadian experience.

We Look Forward to Serving You
