

NORTHERN LIGHTS IN THE LAST FRONTIER

Experience nature's best light show north of Fairbanks, where the Aurora Borealis is often the brightest and most reliable. Venture into the Alaskan backcountry with husky sled dogs, visit the Aurora Ice Museum (and Ice Bar!) and attend the World Ice Art Championships. Don't forget the best part – the nightly Aurora Borealis shows lighting up the sky.

OUR PROMISE

While in our care you'll receive 24/7 support and the flawless delivery of your travel experience. We obsess over every detail so that you don't have to. Your journey is bespoke, created just for you. All that's left for you to do is to enjoy Alaska – it is wild, soulful and truly unforgettable.

ITINERARY AT A GLANCE

This trip focuses on two great wintertime experiences: Northern Lights viewing, and ice sculpting! Because Fairbanks is closer to the highly active area over the Arctic The light show is often much brighter and more reliable than over other areas of Alaska. Other trip highlights include dog sledding, visiting the Aurora Ice Museum (and Ice Bar!), and attending the World Ice Art Championships.
