

SKAGWAY SHORE EXCURSIONS

Another spot ideal for its easy access to pristine wilderness, there's a myriad of options to choose from on your Skagway shore excursion. However, with a population of under a thousand souls and just one main street, it can get very crowded when more than 10,000 people come pouring off the cruise ships on a busy summer day! Our collection of private tour options are designed to allow you to take in all that Skagway has to offer without getting lost in the crowds!

GLACIER BAY FLIGHTSEEING

1.5 HOURS

This exclusive tour provides you with an opportunity to explore Glacier Bay National Park from the air. Your local guide will greet you dockside and transfer you to the Skagway airport; there, you'll meet your pilot—an experienced flyer who has been exploring the mountain passes around Glacier Bay since 1995. Upon takeoff, you'll immediately marvel at the dozens of waterfalls cascading down steep mountainsides, and your guide will explain the geologic forces at work as you cross the rugged Chilkat Mountains, soaring over massive glaciers, cobalt blue lakes, and iceberg-filled bays.

HIGHLIGHTS

Soaring high above the mountains, taking in the awe-inspiring views of Glacier Bay National Park

NATURALIST'S PARADISE ADVENTURE

6.5 HOURS

If Skagway is the big city, Haines is a naturalist's paradise. This trip begins with a 35-Minute shared fast ferry ride along the steep-walled fjords that connect Skagway to Haines. Your naturalist guide will immediately start acquainting you with the area's unique plants, animals and ecosystems as you look for humpback whales, harbor seals, and a variety of seabirds. Upon arrival in Haines, take a seaside drive to Chilkoot Lake State Park, which boasts a turquoise lake surrounded by snow-capped mountains, important Tlingit cultural sites, and a salmon-filled river flowing into the sea.

HIGHLIGHTS

Cruising through the Lynn Canal, watching for migratory birds, brown bears, harbor seals, and bald eagles

MULTI-SPORT FAMILY ADVENTURE

9.5 HOURS

This trip combines flightseeing, hiking, and kayaking. The action starts in Skagway, where you meet your bush pilot and head off to explore the skies. You'll pass Rainbow Glacier, the Davidson Icefall, and the Lynn Fjord. In Haines, board a private vehicle for Chilkoot State Park. You'll encounter your sea kayak at the lake, and soon find yourself gliding silently along the shoreline. Next, you'll head to the rainforest to begin your hike, identifying various plants along the way with your naturalist guide. Your tour ends with a picnic lunch and then a 45-minute catamaran back to Skagway.

HIGHLIGHTS

Gliding along the water watching for brown bears, eagles and harbor seals

Passing the majestic Lynn Fjord and Rainbow Glacier

FLIGHTSEEING & GLACIER DOGSLEDDING

2 HOURS

After a breathtaking flight over glaciers, you'll land at a dog camp on the Denver Glacier. Here, experienced guides will introduce you to the world of "mushing" and the art of dog sledding. This is an experience that offers plenty of great photo opportunities—plus the thrill of driving a team of sled dogs. You'll quickly learn the lure of the trail and the thrill of driving a dog team. Feel free to ask your guides—professional mushers—about their myriad backcountry experiences.

Helicopter flightseeing over jagged glaciers

Meeting Alaska's friendly huskies, and driving your own team of dogs across the icefield

HAINES OFFBEAT ATTRACTIONS

6.5 HOURS

The trip begins with a 45-minute shared fast ferry ride along the steep-walled fjord connecting Skagway to Haines. Upon your arrival in Haines, you will visit the Hammer Museum, a quirky museum, dedicated to man's first tool. Next, you will enjoy a scenic drive along the Chilkat River down to Chilkat State Park. Serving as an artist's haven, you will have the opportunity to meet local artists John and Sharon Svenson, and tour their handcrafted timber-frame gallery.
