

VANCOUVER

PRIVATE SHORE EXCURSIONS

Vancouver is a grand international city. Even if you're just passing through as you embark or disembark an Alaska cruise, we can make the transition from the airport to your ship comfortable and luxurious with or without a tour en route. If you have a free day prior to or after your cruise, enjoy a guided Vancouver city tour with a picnic lunch. You can even upgrade the experience to include your own private helicopter! Any way you choose, you'll savor Vancouver in the comfort of our private guided luxury SUVs.

VANCOUVER'S ULTIMATE CITY & NATURE TOUR

6 HOURS

Discover the metropolis of the city from the business district to trendy Yaletown; get a feel for the city's multi-cultural nature in the Asian Market, legendary Chinatown, and historic Gastown; Continuing over the Lions Gate Bridge to the North Shore, you'll visit the Lynn Canyon Suspension Bridge and Capilano Salmon Hatchery. The grand finale will be a walk through the Coastal Rainforest of the Capilano Canyon to discover lichen, moss, ferns, and flowering plants growing under the mantle of some of the oldest and largest Douglas fir, Cedar, and Hemlock trees in the Lower Mainland.

HIGHLIGHTS

Uncovering the two sides of Vancouver; a natural paradise and exciting urban destination

VANCOUVER WITH THE KIDS

6 HOURS

Experience the totem poles in Stanley Park and find out more about West Coast Native culture as you look for seabirds, rabbits, squirrels, and seals. A stop at the Vancouver Aquarium is an excellent way to discover the underwater world; kids love Steller sea lions, sea otters, and other local marine life. Alternatively, you might want to visit Capilano Suspension Bridge—the world's longest suspension footbridge. Next, continue to Granville Island and the only market in the world devoted entirely to children—where adults are only allowed when accompanied by a child! Finally, choose from over 200 flavors of frozen homemade treats at the Casa de Gelato!

HIGHLIGHTS

Exploring Granville Island's Kids Market – home to a giant Indoor Adventure Zone and a 50-year-old Canadian Pacific Caboose

DIFFERENT FACES OF VANCOUVER

4 HOURS

This private tour explores different areas of Vancouver, highlighting the city's physical and cultural diversity. Discover West Coast living in the West End residential area, which enjoys the highest restaurant density and the best views in the city. Continuing over the Capilano River Canyon, you'll experience a magnificent Rain Forest Adventure. Finally, you'll venture through Chinatown. The sights and fragrances will come alive as you explore the centuries-old herbal culture of a Chinese pharmacy.
