Fairmont Pacific Rim

Vancouver, BC

Completed in February 2010, the Fairmont Pacific Rim is Vancouver’s newest five-star hotel—and arguably its most luxurious. Located downtown, on Vancouver’s waterfront, the Fairmont Pacific Rim offers unobstructed views of the snow-capped North Shore Mountains, Stanley Park, and Howe Sound. It boasts 367 lavish rooms including 47 suites, a fine dining restaurant, a casual lounge and lobby bar, plus an Italian deli and bakery. Other amenities include the Willow Stream Spa, complete with rooftop pool and lounge.

Fairmont Waterfront

Vancouver, BC

A recipient of the AAA Four Diamond Award, the Fairmont Waterfront Vancouver is located on the shores of scenic Burrard Inlet and offers some 489 rooms and suites in a contemporary west coast style. It also features a health club with a 50-foot outdoor heated pool, Heron’s restaurant, and a lounge. A Fairmont Gold floor provides a more “boutique” experience, with a private check-in/out area, exclusive concierge, and access to the Fairmont Gold Lounge. The Fairmont Waterfront was included on Condé Nast Traveler’s prestigious Gold List of the World’s Best Places to Stay in 2010.

ACCOMMODATION

Rosewood Hotel Georgia

Vancouver, BC

Following its debut in the Roaring '20s, this legendary hotel came to be known as Vancouver's most elegant retreat. The Rosewood Hotel Georgia was fully restored and re-launched as a luxury boutique hotel in 2011. Hotel amenities include the celebrated Hawksworth restaurant, the vintage inspired 1927 Lobby Lounge, an outdoor restaurant and lounge, fitness centre, 52-inch indoor saltwater lap pool, and the Rosewood "Sense" Spa. It was recently awarded a AAA Four Diamond rating and it is the first and only hotel in Canada to achieve a Five Star Travel Guide Rating by Forbes.
